

TEAM BUILDING AT SMC

Add an exciting point of difference to your next event at SMC by including a fun and engaging team event! Our team building events are fun and, importantly tailored to the objectives, time frame and budget of our clients, with an overall aim to improve team performance and enhance workplace culture.

ART IN A DAY

Art in a Day is a unique opportunity to explore and even discover the creative potential in a team. Forget everything you have been told about painting and being an artist as you do your very best to wow the judges. The mystery of the artistic process unfolds in as little as three hours as teams create and design their very own Mona Lisa.
